Why do you want to serve on this board?	As an Economic Specialist with the State of Florida, I have come in contact with countless individuals desperately in need of help. Through the years housing has been and continues to be the area of most need for individuals and families. While numerous services are available to address other socioeconomic issues, housing still remains unaddressed. Being apart of this board will allow me the opportunity to make impact on how the housing needs of our most vulnerable citizens are addressed.
