

Sponsored by:

A Journey into Water Education

A Water Festival JOURNAL

this journal belongs to:

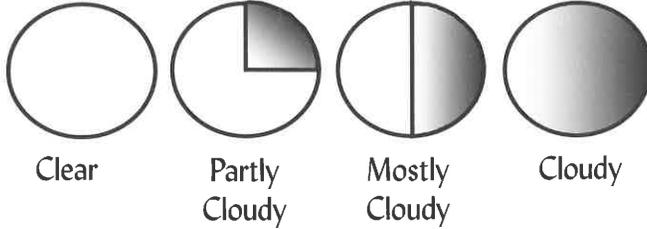

Weather Observations

Date: _____

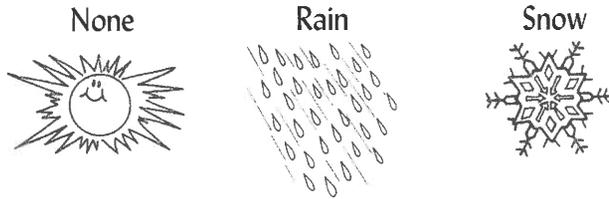

Time: _____

Temperature: _____ °F/°C

Cloud Cover:

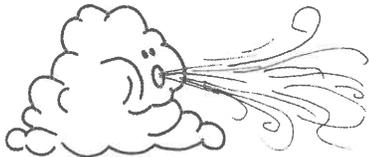

Precipitation:

Wind Direction:

(What direction is the wind coming from?): _____

Wind Speed:

Calm Gentle Breeze Windy Very Windy

_____ Station
What was this station about?

What did you do at this station?

What did you learn that you didn't know before?

What else do you want to know about this topic?

Station

What was this station about?

What did you do at this station?

What did you learn that you didn't know before?

What else do you want to know about this topic?

This page is for anything else you may want to record or draw about water.

Create a Water Festival Poem

Follow these prompts to write your poem.

Line one: Place yourself at the festival site (be specific).

Line two: Comment on the weather, the season, and/or the time of day.

Line Three: Add something from nature (plant, animal, rock, soil, landscape, other).

Line Four: Comment on the first three lines (reflect, contrast, or summarize).

(See opposite page for a sample poem.)

First Draft:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Sample Poem

“Standing by the stream in Langohr Park
On this chilly Montana morning,
Aspen leaves shiver
With me as we await the sun together.”

Revise your poem here:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____