	Literary Themed Shirts In the Library: Wear your favorite book themed shirt. Create book title poetry using books found in the library. Activity: Take a picture of your poem and post it on the library's Facebook or Instagram page.  Crafts @ Night w/Angie: Make your Own Tote Bag!	Team Tuesday In the Library: Wear your favorite sports team, book genre, TV or movie series. Show us your team! Activity: It's National Library Workers Day. Say thanks to your favorite library employees. Kids – stop by the Youth Services department for a craft and games. Crafts @ Night w/Angie: How to Make an Explosion Book	Wacky Wednesday In the Library: Wacky Socks! Wacky Clothes! Wacky Hair! Show us your silly side. Activity: Read aloud – backward. Have a wacky read-aloud time by starting at the end of a book and reading to the beginning! We will be testing your observation skills to see if you notice anything amiss. Crafts @ Night w/Angie: Monster Book of Monsters &amp; The Golden Snitch	Hats off to Reading In the Library: Wear your favorite hat to show us you think we're Tops! Activity: What is your favorite hat to wear when you're reading? Are you a detective, a reporter, a problem solver, or a leader? Readers can wear many hats when they read. Post a selfie on the library's Facebook or Instagram page in your hat and favorite book. Crafts @ Night w/Angie: Paper Flowers with Chocolate Kisses Inside	Reading is Active Friday In the Library: Wear your workout clothes and get ready to READ! Activity: Books are a great way to learn: to be exposed to new ideas and ways of thinking and to be entertained in the process. Reading keeps your mind active and your body can be too. Join us for a short &amp; easy workout session in the lobby at 3:30pm. Crafts @ Night w/Angie: Kumihimo Bracelet (Round &amp; Flat)	Superhero Saturday In the Library: Anyone with x-ray vision, super strength, or invisibility powers (real or imagined) is welcome, so long as they promise to thwart the evil villains and save humanity. Activity: Stop by the Youth Services department for a little trivia and trinkets. Crafts @ Night w/Angie: How to make your own Book Safe
